Use case

Each of our core collections is categorized according to end-use activities. Customers will find comfort, support, and performance functionality throughout.

Performance

Experience a full range of motion in outdoor-driven and sport-specific pairs. From treadmills to trails to travels, put some muscle into your next activity with the BallPark Pouch™ and advanced BallPark Pouch™ PRO.

Baselayers

Made for outdoor adventures and cold-weather sports, our range of baselayers lock in warmth while keeping you sweat-free for next-to-skin comfort.

Everyday

Durable and versatile pairs designed to deliver remarkable softness, breathability, and support from workdays to weekends.

All-Day Active

Make moves in styles that move with you. This category includes 2N1 Shorts, tech tees, tights, casual tops, and all-new hoodies, half zips, and joggers.

Swim

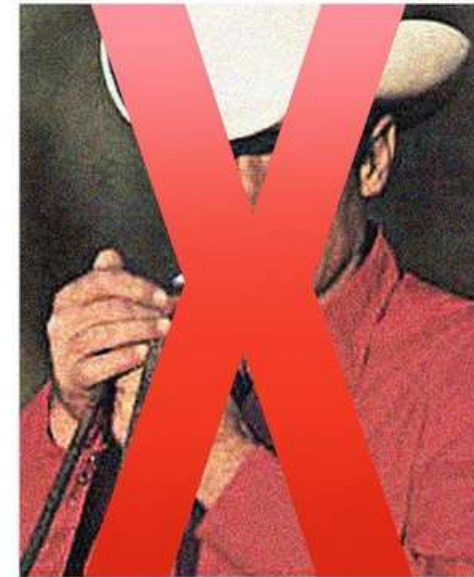

Designed for quick dips and long beach days, our Swim styles feature a DropTemp™ Cooling Hydro Liner and the supportive BallPark Pouch™.

Socks

Everyday socks juiced up with performance features for comfort and support that last every step of the way.

Sleep

Our Sleep category uses premium fabrics like modal and a silk blend. For extra comfort and support at night, a selection of styles features DropTemp™ Cooling technology and the BallPark Pouch™ FREE.

2006 – A time when the definitions of manhood were changing for the better. Men were more comfortable being themselves. Gone were the 1950's Marlboro Man definitions of masculinity. Truly, there had never been a wider, more inclusive, accepting definition of manhood in history. But when it came to the place where we put our physical manhood, that was still as antiquated as all those old ideas of what it meant to be a man. Our founder asked, why isn't men's underwear designed for the needs of male anatomy?

Long story short, SAXX was born.

Obsessed with the comfort of your manhood.

So much of manhood is about just “toughing things out.” But when it comes to your biological manhood, toughing out, chafing, jostling, and the dreaded scrotum-stuck-to-leg isn’t tough. It’s borderline abuse. We have made it our unapologetic mission to change this – to relieve men of other physical discomforts (and help them look good along the way).

Experience the BallPark Pouch.™

The BallPark Pouch™ is scientifically-engineered to secure your balls in the most comfortable thing in the world: a hammock. Designed to support the male anatomy, our patented pouch technology is built with breathable mesh panels to separate your balls from your thighs. This means no more sticking, chafing, or adjusting.

Creating the BallPark Pouch™ was the beginning of a new era in men's underwear and our obsession with the comfort of your manhood.

Comfort in motion.

All-Day Active Apparel.

Cruise in comfort with our new lineup of All-Day Active Apparel. Combining everyday versatility with performance attributes, our hoodies, half zips, and joggers take you through your whole day – from cool morning walks to afternoon errands to evening bike rides. Made to deliver functional comfort, you'll never want to take these styles off. And fortunately, with their hangout aesthetic, you won't have to.

DropTemp™

Cooling

technology.

Don't lose your cool. Find it in our lineup of underwear, swimwear, tops – and now, sleepwear and undershirts – equipped with our exclusive DropTemp™ Cooling technology. A highly breathable, quick-drying system, DropTemp™ boosts your natural evaporative cooling capacity by moving sweat away from your skin (yes, the science is insane like that). Whether it's backyard hangouts, backstrokes, hiking the backcountry, or bedtime, do it all in our advanced cooling underwear and apparel.

Cotton. But cooler.

DropTemp™ Cooling Cotton.

Last fall, we took your favorite fabric and infused it with our exclusive cooling tech to create iced-out cotton underwear. This fall, we're taking the same buttery-soft and ultra-cool cotton/modal blend to make all-new undershirts that'll cool your day-to-day pursuits. Make your everyday a breeze in the DropTemp™ Cooling Cotton collection.

Roast Master Mid-Weight Baselayer Bottom.

Is it just us, or is it hot in here? No, that's the Roast Master Mid-Weight Baselayer. A level up from our Quest collection, these full-length bottoms are made with peached double knit for thermal warmth and next-to-skin comfort. Meanwhile, its raised grid back manages airflow, locks in heat, and combats moisture build-up and odor. Whether you're carving up some fresh pow or dodging throws in a snowball fight, Roast Master's inner leg gusset and 4-way stretch let you master any move you make. Equipped with the unparalleled support of the BallPark Pouch™, the only balls getting tossed around will be the snowy kind.

Underwear Fit Guide.

Fit

Loose

Airy, with ample room around the leg. A modern take on the traditional boxer short.

Relaxed

Slightly roomier than our Slim Fit: form-fitting around the butt and thighs, eases gently near the leg.

Slim

Form-fitting around the butt and thighs.

Light-Compression

Hybrid performance fit: hugs the body but is never restrictive.
